Usage guide for EasySave

When the application is launched, you are on the main menu. Different functions are available. To use them, click on the corresponding button.

Function 1, « Choose the language »

You can change the language of the application by selecting the corresponding flag.

Function 2, « Execute the backup(s) »

Launch a previously defined backup (by the function 3), which will copy all the files from the source directory to the target one. You can pause/resume/stop this execution with the corresponding "pause", "start" and "stop" buttons.

Enter the name of the backup you want to execute, or « * » to execute all of them.

Function 3, « Create a backup »

Use this function to plan a backup.

Enter the backup name, select the location of the source folder (the one that will be copied) with the tool, then select the location of the target folder (the one that will receive the backup) with the tool.

Finally, select the log type that will be used (Json or XML) and validate.

Function 4, « See the current backup(s) »

List all existing backup(s) with some details on their current state.

Function 5, « Delete a backup »

This function is used to delete a backup, by entering its exact name.

Function 6, « Professional software verification configuration »

Page to parameter the verification of the professionnal software.
Add or delete software from the list by entering their name.

Function 7, « Exit »

Choose this function to close EasySave. You will be asked to confirm.